

East Sussex County Council

Standards Committee - Independent Members

We are looking for two people to sit as independent members of our Standards Committee. The Committee helps to promote and maintain high standards of conduct for the Authority's elected members. The Committee meets a couple of times a year and independent members may also be required to sit on any hearings in relation to complaints relating to breaches of our Members' Code of Conduct. Full training will be provided.

To apply you must live or work in East Sussex and be able to demonstrate high standards of integrity.

You are not eligible to apply if you have been a member or officer of the authority within a period of 5 years immediately before the date of appointment or are a relative or close friend of a member or officer of East Sussex County Council.

A small financial allowance will be payable for the hours that you work and expenses will be paid.

An application form and person specification is available from Mary Clarke, Head of Democratic Services, County Hall, St Anne's Crescent, Lewes, BN7 1SW or telephone (01273) 481587.

Closing date for completed applications is the 20 June 2008
