Borough of Hastings.

---

The Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Hastings, in the County of Sussex, the Corporation acting by the Council of the said Borough, do hereby in pursuance of the powers conferred on them by Section 66 of the Hastings Corporation Act, 1900, make the following By-Laws for regulating the selling and hawking of any article, commodity, or thing on the seashore or esplanades, and do hereby in pursuance of the powers conferred on them by Section 116 of the same Act, impose the penalties in the same By-Laws mentioned

1. The By-Law made on the 16th day of October, 1903, in the words following :—

“ No person shall, from and after the “ allowance or confirmation by one of “ His Majesty’s Principal Secretaries of “ State and the approval by the Board
“ of Trade of this By-Law, sell or hawk
“ any article, commodity, or thing, on “ any part of the seashore (including in
“ that term the sea beach, sand, shingle,
“ and land between the esplanades of
“ this Borough and low water mark,

“whether usually covered at high tide
 “or not) or on any of the esplanades
 “westward of a line drawn in a southerly
 “direction from the south-east corner of
 “the Queen’s Hotel and indicated by “Notices conspicuously affixed on the “esplanade and shore.”

“Every person who shall offend against
 “the provisions of the foregoing By-Law
 “shall be liable for every offence to a “penalty not exceeding five pounds.”
 is hereby repealed.

2. Where any parts of the seashore or esplanades within that portion of the Borough situate between the Eastern boundary of the Borough at Ecclesbourne, and the Western termination of the existing esplanade at a point in a line with Grosvenor Gardens, have, by notices affixed in conspicuous positions thereon, been set apart by the Council for the sale and hawking of such articles, commodities, or things as may be specified in the notices, no person shall offer for sale, or hawk any article, commodity, or thing so specified, on any other part of the seashore or esplanades within the before-mentioned portion of the Borough, as the case may be.

3. Where any parts of the seashore or esplanades within the portion of the Borough mentioned in By-Law 2 have been set apart by the Council as mentioned in such By-Law, no person shall resort to, assemble with other persons in, or attempt to occupy any such part so as to interfere with or cause annoyance to any person or persons already occupying such part and using it for the purposes for which it has been set apart.

Penalty Clause.

4. Any person offending against any of the foregoing By-Laws shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds.

Saving for Rights of Crown.

5. Nothing in or done under the provisions of the foregoing By-Laws shall, in any respect, prejudice or injuriously affect the rights and interests of the Crown in the foreshore below high water mark.

The Common Seal of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Hastings was hereunto affixed in pursuance of an Order of the Council of the said Borough made this second day of March, 1906, in the presence of

BEN. F. MEADOWS,
Town Clerk.

I hereby confirm the foregoing Bye-Laws.

W. H. GLADSTONE,
One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Whitehall,
7th May, 1906.

The Board of Trade hereby approve the foregoing By-Laws.

T. H. W. PELHAM,
Assistant Secretary.
