Events

28 June; Finds identification with Sussex Finds Liaison Officer

29 June: Teachers' Drop-in session, looking ahead to autumn programme.

2 July; Concert by 'Symphonie'.

3 July: Outside In Workshop - family storytelling

24 July to 30 August: Relic - Guardians of the Museum. Based on CBBC programme and part of BBC's History of the World project. Children's challenge quiz throughout summer holidays.

29 July: Family Workshop with Creative Landscapes' artist-in-residence.

5 July: Family Workshop with Creative Landscapes' artist-in-residence

Creative Landscapes, run by English Heritage, is one of the SE Accentuate programmes to make heritage more accessible. A deaf or disabled artist will be appointed for a summer residency to deliver the family workshops and two 3-day workshops for deaf and disabled adults during August.

11 September: Heritage Open Days. Local Studies Room Open Afternoon.

The Museum is also working with East Sussex Art Partnership and Hastings Youth Council to develop a project for Word County that offers a focus for stories, histories and journeys of people from different cultural backgrounds. This project, DJ VJ, will use multi-media and culminate in an event during Coastal Currents in September 2010.
