

Agenda Item No: 6

Report to: Museums Committee

Date of Meeting: 5 December 2011

Report Title: Commemorative Plaques

Report By: Cathy Walling
Museum Curator

Purpose of Report

to provide an update on the Commemorative plaques programme

Recommendation(s)

1. the report is for noting

Reasons for Recommendations

Introduction

1. The plaque to Alan Turing has been mounted on Baston Lodge by the owner. The Curator will arrange a small ceremony for early 2012.
2. The plaque to Sidney Little has been ordered. The Carlisle Parade underground car park has now been listed by English Heritage as Grade II. This means that listed building consent will have to be obtained, which can take up to 12 weeks. The plaque will therefore miss Little's 50th anniversary year.

Wards Affected

Castle, Maze Hill

Area(s) Affected

Central Hastings, South St. Leonards
