Directed Surveillance Unique Reference Number (URN) (to be supplied by the central monitoring officer).

6. Identify on which ground the directed surveillance is necessary under Section 28(3) of RIPA. Delete those that are inapplicable. Ensure that you know which of these grounds you are entitled to rely on (SI 2010. No. 521);

For the purpose of preventing or detecting criminal offences that are punishable, whether on summary conviction or indictment, by a maximum term of at least 6 months imprisonment or are related to the underage sale of alcohol and tobacco.

7. Explain why this directed surveillance is necessary on the grounds you have identified [Code paragraph 3.3]

8. Supply details of any potential collateral intrusion and why the intrusion is unavoidable. [Bear in mind Code paragraphs 3.8 to 3.11.]

Describe precautions you will take to minimise collateral intrusion.
